Rationale for Recommended Preparation:

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES—This section answers the question “what will students be able to do as a result of taking this course?” State some of the objectives in terms of specific, measurable student actions (e.g. discuss, identify, describe, analyze, construct, compare, compose, display, report, select, etc.). For a more complete list of outcome verbs please see Public Folders>Curriculum>Help Folder>SLO Language Chart. Each outcome should be numbered.

COURSE CONTENT—This section describes what the course is “about”—i.e. what it covers and what knowledge students will acquire

Concepts: What terms and ideas will students need to understand and be conversant with as they demonstrate course outcomes? Each concept should be numbered.

Issues: What primary tensions or problems inherent in the subject matter of the course will students engage? Each issue should be numbered.

Themes: What motifs, if any, are threaded throughout the course? Each theme should be numbered.

Skills: What abilities must students have in order to demonstrate course outcomes? (E.g. write clearly, use a scientific calculator, read college-level texts, create a field notebook, safely use power tools, etc). Each skill should be numbered.

REPRESENTATIVE LEARNING ACTIVITIES—This section provides examples of things students may do to engage the course content (e.g., listening to lectures, participating in discussions and/or group activities, attending a field trip). These activities should relate directly to the Course Learning Outcomes. Each activity should be numbered.

ASSESSMENT TASKS—This section describes assessments instructors may use to allow students opportunities to provide evidence of achieving the Course Learning Outcomes. Each assessment should be numbered.

Representative assessment tasks (These are examples of assessments instructors could use):

EXAMPLES OF APPROPRIATE TEXTS OR OTHER READINGS—This section lists example texts, not required texts. Author, Title, and Date Fields are required
