General Observations

What are the general observations on the general quality of the Program Review?

- A number of programs are being run by associate faculty; there is a lack of full time faculty
- Overall lack of institutional budget support
- Most programs/disciplines are out of compliance with Accreditation assessment requirements
- Significant facilities issues for some programs
- Need for AOA
- A need for counseling support
- A need for more LRC support

Specific Findings

What are the findings about the programs? Identify the challenges likely to face in the coming years and how they may be addressed.

Generally, what resources are needed to meet goals and objectives?

Provide an analysis of the current state of the departments under review including enrollment trends; use of assessment; and general level of SLOs and PLOs.

Recommendations

- Implement an online student evaluation process for associate faculty evaluations to better utilize the AOA time allocations
- Maintenance work requests are tracked online
- IT requests tracked online
- Every classroom should be a smart classroom
